CHAS. M. MEACHAM - Editor.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

S. B. BUCKNER,

of Hart County.

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR,

J. W. BRYAN,

of Kenton County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,

P. W. HARRIN, of Mercer County.

FOR AUDITOR,

FAYETTE HEWITT,

of Hardin County.

FOR TREASURER,

JAS. W. TATE,

of Woodford County.

FOR SUPT. PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

JOS. DESHA PICKETT,

of Fayette County.

FOR REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE,

THOMAS H. CORBETT,

of McCracken County.

FOR STATE SENATOR, SIXTH DISTRICT,

ZENO F. YOUNG,

of Hopkins County.

Mr. Blaine has reached England and is now doing London.

The coffee market is still unsettled. An additional decline of 2 cents was reported Saturday.

Bob Thomas has moved the Russellville Dispatch office to Greenville and the first number appeared at that place Friday reduced in size.

The members of the E. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, were entertained at Boston Sunday by the G. A. R. men. Let us have peace.

The National Association of Liquor Dealers, which met in Chicago last week, made arrangements to fight prohibition in Texas and Tennessee.

Leggett, the Georgia murderer, who was saved by a desperate race against time by his attorney who carried a reprieve, a month ago, was hanged at Louisville Friday.

The Republican candidate for the Senate never tries to make a speech. He is the Hub of his party, not its spokes-man. That's the kind of fellow he is.

There are two vacancies on the Republican ticket. White men would not have the empty honors and negroes can't get them. The Gone Overboard Party is a bad fix.

Gen. Hardin has made the following appointments: Mayfield, June 20; Clinton, 21; Wickliffe, 21 at night; Hickman, 22; Paducah, 23, at night; Smithland, 24; Marion, 25; Bowling Green, 17.

Editor O'Brien has returned to Ireland and was received in Dublin Sunday with a great ovation, his carriage being dragged through the streets by his enthusiastic admirers.

The remains of Joel T. Hart, the sculptor, which were removed from Italy by an act of the last Legislature, were publicly interred at Frankfort Saturday with much pomp and ceremony.

Col. Mayhew stated in his recent speech here that the article copied into the KENTUCKIAN from the Littlefield Gazette was a "pack of lies." They were the Colonel's own statements and he knew the trademark.

Mrs. Rose H. Wilson, the temperance lecturer who stumped this county last fall, was married at Litchfield Ky., Tuesday June 14th, to Mr. W. R. Winstead, of Dixon, Ky. Mr. Winstead will enter the lecture field with his wife.

The election of Bill Chandler, of New Hampshire, to the Senate, completes the elections. The Republicans have 30 and the Democrats 37 Senators, though there will be a protest against the seating of two of the Democrats.

Watt Hardin has no opponent of his own and Bradley will not meet him, so what is the poor fellow to do? He is loaded to the muzzle and stands ready to open fire whenever he is confronted, but no Republican can be found who will meet him on the stump.

John J. Cornelson and his father-in-law, Rev. Thos. Munnich, have been indicted by the grand jury of Montgomery Co. for libeling the Commonwealth's Attorney by distributing a circular headed, "The Fraudulent Indictment against John J. Cornelson." Equivo Stoffer, who released Cornelson, was not indicted.

The failure of the attempted corner in wheat, which occurred at Chicago last week, stranded some of the strongest firms of speculators in the west. The price of wheat dropped from 93 to 73 cents. The Chicago banks failed to come to time with as much money to back it as had been promised. Wheat was quoted at 73 cents Saturday.

Hon. Dick Key, who was elected to the Legislature from Hopkins some years ago as a Greenbacker, is out as a candidate for Representative in that county on the Union Labor ticket. There is no Republican candidate, but there will be no fusion and he cannot hope to get more than 200 or 400 votes. He doubtless makes the race merely to test the strength of the new party.

In Hon. John Feland's card of declination, published in the Louisville Republican, that gentleman frankly says:

"And further, it is due to myself and my party to say, that my past action on the convict labor question and my present convictions, are not in strict harmony with the platform of my party, and as I have no apologies to make for my past action, and can not yield my present convictions on that subject, I feel that my position on the ticket would be embarrassing to me and to the same extent injurious to the ticket if I were, under the circumstances, to accept the nomination tendered to me."

Satisfied that another and an able man of the party can be found to take the place, I must decline the nomination tendered me, assuring you that I shall give my hearty support to the ticket and aid it every way I can. Mr. Feland's position is somewhat inconsistent. He declines to be associated with others on the ticket, whose views he can not endorse, and yet will support the ticket. Mr. Feland should not lose from a party whose principles he cannot adopt as his own. He is too good a man to be a Republican anyhow.

The great Democratic rally at Lexington on the 15th was attended by 20,000 people. It was the biggest political gathering held in Kentucky for forty years. Gen. Buckner in a plain but forcible manner made a speech that is a complete refutation of every Republican lie that is being circulated by those who are doing the dirty work of the Republican party this season. It bristled with facts that no honest and fair minded man could hear and not be convinced of their truth. Senator McDonald and Green Smith, of Indiana, Messrs. Beck, Blackburn, McKenzie, Bryan and various other speakers followed Gen. Buckner. The tables were spread all day and the crowd ate at any time during the day that their appetites suggested. The whole affair was a grand success.

The man on the Memphis Times thus expresses himself:

A good deal of criticism has been indulged by Kentucky journalists on Miss Amelia Rives because in her last poem in Harper's she made "corn" rhyme with "gone." If there is any one word that the average Kentuckian considers sacred from the unallowable liberties of maudlin levity and the fickle changes of fashion, it is the word "corn" with all the ripe memories and the mellow associations that cling thereto. Furthermore the flouting of "corn" with the melancholy and futile verb "gone" was a subtle stab at the integrity of old traditions, that would naturally have as depressing an effect upon a Kentuckian as a mystic epitaph seen through the dregs of a departed cocktail.

Mr. Bush Lunsford, of Hopkins county, after deliberating for two months has concluded to place himself before the Democratic buzz saw and has declared himself a candidate for the Senate. He is about 55 years old and his only qualification for the position is a lot of hodge which he possesses and which he is expected to turn loose in the campaign. He represented Hopkins county in the last Legislature, elected by a combination of liquor men and Republicans, and had a bill passed in the House to re-submit the prohibition question in Hopkins, which was killed in the Senate by Mr. Feland.

Mr. Stuart H. Kuott, assistant to the First Vice President of the L. & N. railroad, has returned to his post of duty after a three months' absence, caused by a severe attack of typhoid fever. During his convalescence he visited Old Point Comfort, New York and other points in the East in search of strength. He comes back much improved and ready for business.—Courier Journal.

Mr. Kuott's restoration to health will be noted with pleasure by his many newspaper friends.

Mrs. Fannie Hill, of Blue Hill, will be one hundred years old on the 30th of this month and on that anniversary her centennial will be appropriately celebrated at Blue Hill church. On the 28th of last month her husband, "Uncle" Johnnie Hill, was ninety-nine. This is perhaps the oldest couple living in Kentucky and as their lives have been full of usefulness and good deeds the event of the 30th will be participated in by a tremendous concourse of friends.—Elizabeth News.

The Union Labor party held a convention at Lagrange last week, which was attended by about 40 delegates, and nominated the following ticket: For Governor, A. H. Cargill, of Crittenden; for Lieutenant Governor, O. N. Bradburn, of Louisville; for Attorney General, John P. Nowman, of Campbell; for Treasurer, George Smith, of Hancock; for Auditor, John McCune, of Fayette; for Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. M. McKeith, of Marion; for Registrar, Gano Henry, of Christian.

The campaign has opened up energetically in the State, and 25 speakers were advertised to speak at the towns of Nicholasville, Lawrenceburg, Elizabethtown, Mayfield, Mt. Sterling, Glasgow, Danville, Princeton, Carrollton, Irvine, Greensburg, LaGrange, Somerset, Franklin and Mt. Olive. Gen. Buckner and Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie were assigned to the first named place, Gen. Hardin to Mayfield and Hon. John Young Brown to Princeton.

John Sicche, a farmer, was drowned in the steamer Sherlock at Augusta, Ky.

Much Ado About Nothing.

At the request of Gen. Drum and Secretary Endicott, who desired to get rid of several boxes of old rubbish deposited in the War Department building at Washington, President Cleveland signed an order last week authorizing the return to certain States of a number of old flags surrendered when the war ended in 1865. This action, which was regarded as of so little importance that the order was signed without investigation, at once kicked up a tremendous racket among a lot of Grand Asses who have not yet learned that the war is over. Fairchild, the head of the Grand Army, made himself especially conspicuous for assiduity by making a bloody shirt harangue in which he cursed the President and made an ass of himself generally. The President investigated the matter for himself when his attention was called to it and issued the following order, which will probably have the effect of removing all danger of a renewal of hostilities by the cranks who love to bask of their past achievements, and whose views are not shared by the really brave and patriotic Union soldiers:

"I have today considered with more care than when the subject was orally presented to me, the action of your department, directing letters to be addressed to the Governors of all the States, offering to return, if desired, to the loyal States the Union flags captured in the war of the rebellion by the Confederate forces, and afterwards recovered by Government troops; to the Confederate States the flags captured by the Union forces, all of which, for many years, have been packed in boxes and stored in the cellar and attic of the War Department. I am of the opinion that the return of these flags in the manner thus contemplated is not authorized by existing law, nor justified as an Executive act.

I request, therefore, that no further steps be taken in the matter, except to examine and inventory these flags, and adopt proper measures for their preservation. Any directions as to the final disposition of them should originate with Congress.

Railroad robbers are getting in their work out west at a lively rate. There were three or four robberies last week, the most important being near Houston, Tex., at 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Ten men boarded the train at a small station and went through the cars, relieving the sleeping passengers of $5,000 worth of money and valuables and the express car of probably as much more. Posses are searching the country for the robbers.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Sept. 13, 1882.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. have taken Hall's Catarrh Cure. Had catarrh all my life; am 48 years old. Had asthma 15 years, and a dreadful cough for five years. Have been crying; went to the Hot Springs; I have doctored with the doctors here; I have done nothing but take medicine for 15 years. When I commenced using Hall's Catarrh Cure, I was almost dead. I sent for the doctor the day I got Hall's Catarrh Cure, and I told him that I would do any way and that I would try your medicine. I was very bad. How I suffered for 9 years! I could hardly breathe at times. I saw Hall's Catarrh Cure advertised in the papers and commenced taking it. I would have been under the ground to-day if I had not been for that. I have not had one bad spell of coughing since. In breathing my head feels well and I am well. It has done me a thousand dollars worth of good. There are ten of my friends, on seeing what it had done for me, taking it, and it is helping them. I only wish that every one who has catarrh, asthma and a bad cough could see me, so that I could tell them all to take it. All that know me here know how I have suffered. (I have been here since 1853.) and say to me that "I am so glad you found something that could cure you." Everyone says, "How much better you look." The doctors say they are glad I found Hall's Catarrh Cure as they could not cure me. I cannot express my gratitude to you for the good Hall's Catarrh Cure has done me. You can use as much of this letter as will do the afflicted good. Publish it to the whole world—it is all true and they should know it. JOSEPHINE CHENEY, 406 East North St.

There seems to be still a great deal of uncertainty about whether Mrs. Tillie M. Harrison would Mrs. Menden over at the little Indiana town of Scottsville. One way to settle it is for Mrs. Harrison to thrash Mr. Menden again so there could be no doubt about it, though of course we do not put this in the shape of advice to the lady.—Times.

The Inter-state Commerce Commission has rendered a decision on the petition of the L. & N. and other southern railroads, praying for a suspension of the long and short haul clause. The decision is virtually a triumph for the roads, though it does not decide much.

Salie Cowherd stabbed and killed Emma Doboy, at Lebanon, with a barlow knife. Both colored.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, Ky., June 19, 1887.—Miss Charlie Croft, who has been attending school at Bardonia, Ky., returned home yesterday.

Prof. McQuiklin and family left yesterday for Madisonville, Ky. The young people of our town are making an effort to get up money enough to buy an organ for the church at this place. The move is a good one and should be crowned with success. A generous hearted man from your city, sent us a check for $10 to be used as a subscription to purchase an organ. Should any others from your city feel able to assist us they can send money to C. A. Brasher, who will see that it is properly used.

Several cases of dysentery have been reported last week.

Mrs. J. B. Jackson is visiting at White Plains, Ky. this week. A suspicious looking character entered a drug store here the other day and asked for 2½ grains of morphine, which was properly labelled and given him, whereupon he opened the package and took the contents. He survived but has not applied for any more.

Miss Jessie Long, of St. Charles, is visiting Miss Josie Mcintosh. Gentle Mcintosh had his hands badly mangled Friday, by a window sash falling on them.

The Bartington picnic bills eclipse any we have seen this season. You should read them.

W. T. Stewart, contractor and builder at this place, left last week for the White Plains neighborhood, where he has contracted to build a blue house for John Stanley.

About the only effect Mr. Bradley's campaign speech (which he is eulogically declaiming over the State) has yet produced was to drive from the Republican ticket the one man who possessed more brains than the whole lay-out combined.

Misses Maggie and Leva Pyie and Miss Bertha Harrow left to-day for Kirkmanville to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Col. A. A. Syper arrived Sunday, from Fort Smith, Ark., on a short visit to his family. He is much pleased with his new location.

Mr. James Weathers, of the Kirkmanville neighborhood, who went to Kansas last May, returned Friday, well enough pleased with his Christian.

Mr. Jno. C. Gary, Sr., went to Morgansfield, Friday and returned yesterday with Mrs. Jno. C. Gary, Jr., and children who had been there on a visit for several days.

Dr. R. M. Fairleigh, Andrew Seargent, R. W. Gaines and W. B. Radford returned Friday from the meeting of the State Medical Society at Paducah.

Ed. Christian left Monday morning for Clarksville, where he will accept a position on the Tobacco Leaf. Ed. is a young man of more than ordinary promise and we wish him much success.

Frank W. Dockery's many friends will be glad to learn of the fact that he is now traveling passenger agent of the Mammoth Cave railroad, and is buying it out and running it as a private enterprise.

Two of the young men of the community, and who are well known, are expected to return from a visit to the city.

HERE AND THERE.

Candler's stock sale next Saturday.
The opening ball at Dawson will be held next Thursday, the 23rd inst.

The thermometer registered 98 in the shade at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

We are informed that the local wheat market will open at about 60 cents.

The weather continues dry and the price of tobacco is still firm with an upward tendency.

Mr. E. L. Ponks shot a mad dog near Coleman's pond Saturday evening.

W. E. Embry pays 4 1/2 cents for good lambs and 3 cents per pound for good cattle.

Buy Furcks Coal of J. F. Gordon & Co., office Wheeler, Mills & Co. It is the best and cheapest in use.

Fairview had a tobacco season Sunday. Fairview generally gets the best of everything going.

It is reported that a disastrous hail storm visited Trenton and other portions of Todd county Sunday afternoon.

The town clock is being put up this week. It was to have been put up by June last, but the work was delayed some.

Work has begun on the turnpike on the Fairview road and the people are at least about to realize the benefits of a system of good roads.

Call at Capt. D. R. Beard's office, under rear end of M. Frankel & Sons, and pay your city tax for 1887.

G. W. Graves, Col.
W. E. Graves, D. C.

Mr. Wendling, the lecturer, will speak at the opera house Friday night on the subject of "Stonewall Jackson," for the benefit of the Widows and Orphans Home.

Rev. J. N. Prestridge will deliver the annual address to the young ladies of the Brownsville, Tenn., Female Institute on to-morrow the 22nd inst.

Those who intend going on the Mammoth Cave excursion the 30th, will please hand in their names at once as we must know who wants to go in order that the excursion may be guaranteed.

Dr. H. M. Sherman, is wholesale agent for the Mexican Amole Soap Co., of Peoria, Ill., and is working up a fine wholesale trade. The snaps are at the best of the kind and stand at the head of the market.

Mr. Clifton C. Ferrell has been re-elected as instructor of Greek in Vanderbilt University, a position he has held during the last year while prosecuting a post graduate course of study.

Mrs. E. F. Howe, mother of Mr. Jas. M. Howe, died at Pittsburgh, Pa., on the 17th inst. and was buried Sunday. Mr. Howe is now in Pittsburgh, having gone east to be present at the obsequies.

At the meeting of the young people's society of the Methodist church, held Thursday night, Miss Allie Bottomly, of Henderson, recited a piece entitled "Maid and Martyr" which was the feature of the evening and received with evidences of the highest appreciation by all who heard it.

Miss Willie Shanklin, a sister of Mr. George Shanklin, died at her home near Fairview on the night of the 16th. The funeral was preached at the family residence Friday by Rev. H. F. Perry, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. She was 21 years of age.

A little daughter of Mr. George Cobb, who lives near Sebree, fell into an eighteen foot well last Sunday morning and was rescued a few minutes afterwards by James Wilson and Watt Davis who heard her cries, and save a few scratches, was unhurt. The water in the well was four feet deep.

The Trustees of the Public Schools of Hopkinsville held a meeting Saturday and re-elected Prof. C. H. Dietrich Superintendent and also re-elected ten of the lady teachers. Miss McKee was not re-elected but probably will be at the next meeting. There was not a full Board at the meeting and one election was deferred until July 2.

You can go on a four days trip in search of a suitable place to which to celebrate the "Glorious Fourth" this year, as the General Passenger Agent of the Chesapeake & Ohio Route has issued instructions to all agents to sell excursion tickets to all C. & O. stations July 2nd, 3rd and 4th, good to return until July 5th at one fare for the round trip.

Park Hotel will officiate as clerk at Henson Springs, which means a good time for all, who visit this season, as Park always gives his personal attention to each and every guest. With a return to the old time fashion of chicken, lamb, about, beef, etc., with plenty of both chalybeate and sulphur water, good shade and splendid low cost, there is no reason why the most fastidious can not be suited. We predict a gay season at this favorite resort.

The media of both Bethel College, at Russellville, and Georgetown College, at Georgetown, were won by Christian county boys. Mr. Wallace Wood, of Sinking Fork, recalled the medal for highest scholarship at the former and Mr. J. Calvin Metcalf, of Garretttsburg, was awarded two medals by the latter college. Both of these young gentlemen are intelligent, ambitious, moral and upright.

Two of the young men of the community, and who are well known, are expected to return from a visit to the city.

THE LAST STEP.

The Court of Appeals Overrules the Motion for a New Trial in the Winfree-Anderson Contest.

The motion of the appellant for a new trial in the case of Winfree vs. Anderson, appealed by Judge Anderson, was overruled by the Court of Appeals Thursday and the end of the contest has been reached, so far as the Courts are concerned.

The decision of Judge Grace which has been affirmed, seats Judge W. P. Winfree, Democrat, over Judge A. H. Anderson, Republican, (elected on the face of the returns by 30 votes) by a majority of 3 votes. Sixty-nine votes, 18 of Winfree's and 51 of Anderson's, were thrown out as illegal.

Most of these were conceded to be illegal and this fight was made up about a dozen votes. The mandate of the Court of Appeals will be issued next Thursday and the attorneys differ as to the next step to be taken.

Some of the lawyers hold that the commission can issue on the mandate and the judgment of the lower court, but others think a new judgment of the Circuit Court is necessary, setting forth the result of the appeal.

It is probable that this matter will be settled by waiting until July 5, when Circuit Court meets, before any further steps are taken. This would put Winfree in about the 8th or 10th of July.

There is almost sure to be a legal fight over the emoluments of the office. Judge Anderson has been paid $500 salary and the fees amount to $200 or $300 more, prior to the decision given by Judge Grace in January.

The fees since that time are conceded to Winfree. Judge Winfree will bring suit for the entire amount and it remains to be seen what the final outcome will be.

The Statement

made by Mr. L. F. Fritch in last Monday's paper is false. I read and mailed the letter in which Mr. McCarrall wrote Mr. Fritch that on account of his very bad treatment to his customers and himself, he was compelled to resign, and requested a settlement without further delay.

LIVINGSTON L. BUCKNER.

The Sebree Ball and Other Points About The Place.

As was announced two weeks ago the opening ball at Sebree came off Saturday night and was equal to expectations, both in point of attendance and pleasure. Already a number from various points had arrived and as each train arrived during the day, the crowd was, each time, swelled until it looked as if everybody was coming to attend this grand opening.

Henderson was well represented, Evansville nearly as well. Hopkinsville furnished quite a number and Clarksville was also represented, besides a number of points off the railroad furnished delegations. The music was furnished by Gideon's (not Gilmore's) string band of Henderson and all agreed that the music rendered was excellent.

Immediately after early supper dancing commenced and continued until 12 o'clock, with an intermission at 11 for refreshments. The dancing was enjoyed by young and old and all who ever ludged in this popular amusement took part on this occasion. The next ball will be given July 2nd, when a good time is in store for those who may be fortunate enough to attend.

There are about forty guests at the Sebree Hotel already, the most of whom will remain during the season and about thirty more are expected next week, besides a great number of transient boarders, and a number of rooms have been engaged for the month of August. It would be well for those contemplating a stay at this popular resort to apply at once for choice rooms at this hotel as they are being rapidly engaged.

Mr. Below, the proprietor, has everything the near markets afford for his tables.

The waters were never better than now, issuing forth from seven different springs, and one delectable forest surrounds the ball, making this noted resort by far the most popular as well as most pleasant resort south of the Ohio.

Want of space forbids our giving a list of those who attended the grand opening ball, or of the guests now sojourning at this pleasant place.

Escaped Convicts.

Chief Higginstaff received the following telegram yesterday:
EDDYVILLE, Ky., June 20.—Description of three convicts who escaped last night.

Pleasant Whitmore, white, aged 35, 5 feet 11 1/2 inches, 175 pounds, hazel eyes, red hair, smooth shaved, irascible affection of face.

A. L. Hawks, white, 40 years, 5 feet 9 1/2 inches, 161 pounds, grey eyes, dark hair and mustache, dark complexion.

W. H. Sanders, col., 38 years, 5 feet 8 inches, 170 pounds, yellow dark hair, eyes and mustache.

"Imitation is the Sincerest Flattery."

If the above quotation is true, then Dr. R. V. Pierce ought to feel highly flattered, on account of the many imitations of his popular remedy, the "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," for they have scores of imitators, but never an equal for the cure of sick and bilious headache, constipation, impure blood, kidney pains, internal fever and all bowel complaints. With a bottle of the angled granules in the house, you can dispense with the family doctor and his often nauseous medicine.

A Week at Dawson.

A Kentuckian representative spent last week at Dawson and a journal of seven days at that popular health resort gave him ample opportunities to form a correct idea of the place.

Dawson is a small town of several hundred inhabitants, which has sprung up within the last few years. It was simply Trade Water Station on the C. & O. road until the now famous chalybeate well was opened in 1882. At present there are about a dozen business houses there, not counting the nine hotels scattered over the hillside for a quarter of a mile around the well.

The Arcadia is the principal hotel and it is operated by a stock company which owns the iron water well, or spring as it is called. The Hamby House nearby and the Summit House on the hill opposite are the other two leading hotels. Both are well kept, the proprietor of the latter being Mr. J. W. Fendley a very clever and energetic young gentleman who is rapidly making the Summit one of the most popular houses at Dawson.

The Kentuckian man stopped at the Arcadia while there. Mr. J. W. Fritch is the manager of this house and assisted by Mrs. Fritch he is making the Arcadia a delightful stopping place for seekers after health or pleasure. The fare is excellent, the arrangements all first class and the well is in the yard only a few steps from the hotel. A good band makes music at frequent intervals, fountains play in the yard, shade trees, vines and flowers make the surroundings pleasant and the young people can indulge in dancing every evening if they choose, as the ball room is situated in the yard near the hotel.

Dawson water is known far and wide for its excellent qualities and in addition to the chalybeate well there is also a salt water near by, from which water for bath is obtained. Mr. N. M. Holman, one of the proprietors of the springs, is acting as clerk and helping to make things pleasant for the guests at the Arcadia. The writer is indebted to him for various little acts of kindness and many special courtesies during his stay.

Quite a pleasant crowd was at the Arcadia during the week ending on the 17th inst. Starling Marshall, of the Henderson Journal, was the ladies' man of the place during his stay of nearly a week. He sang love sick ditties, recited sentimental poems, strolled through the woods and gathered ferns and flowers, chatted, waltzed, flirted and played the devoted generally. He attended a picnic held by and played the agreeable to the rural maidens and joined with the natives in partaking of red lemonade and other refreshments. Towards the end of his stay at Dawson he failed to heed Mr. Weller's advice and concentrated his attentions with such success that he could not refrain from putting on airs and exulting over Shepherd and other less fortunate gallants.

Among the other young gentlemen present were Mr. Wilholt, of Henderson, Mr. H. L. Bassett, of Nashville, Mr. A. P. Shepherd, of Mayfield and Mr. W. P. Henry, of Princeton. There were a dozen or more married men, some of whom were considerably hampered by the presence of their wives, which made it impossible for them to pass themselves off as single men.

Of the young ladies, Misses Mamie Vaughan and Mary Ewin, of Nashville, Mrs. Mary Ayers, a charming young widow, of Fulton, and Miss Jessie Haydon, of Hopkinsville, spent the entire week and most of them are still there. There were a number of married ladies present, the number of guests at the Arcadia being something over 30. Probably as many more were at the other hotels and the numbers were being augmented by arrivals on every train. From this time till late in August there will be a big crowd at Dawson.

Death of Mrs. Mollie O'Neil.

Mrs. Mollie O'Neil, of Prince Edward county, Va., daughter of W. H. and E. H. Watt, died at the residence of her parents in this city last Tuesday the 16th. She was at the time of her death in her 51st year, having been born Aug. 31st, 1836.

Mrs. O'Neil was a lady of many admirable traits, a true friend, a kind mother and an affectionate wife, and died beloved by many friends. Her kind and favorable disposition, her generous and open heart endeared her to a large circle of friends and now that her spirit has taken its flight to a higher sphere, she leaves many on earth to cherish in memory the invaluable qualities of her head and heart.

Mammoth Cave Excursion.

An excursion will be run from this place to the Cave, leaving Thursday morning, 30th, at 6 o'clock, provided as many as 25 people can be secured.

The new railroad to the Cave makes the ride a pleasant one, and far more enjoyable than the old tedious stage coach. The party will arrive at the Cave at 12:25 P. M., in time for dinner, take the short route in the afternoon, the long route on Monday, leaving the Cave at 3:15 P. M., arriving at Hopkinsville at 8:30. Should this prove too much of a rush for some, they can remain over and return Saturday at a small additional cost at the hotel, giving more time for recreation. The entire cost of the two day's trip will be $11.35, including railroad fare, hotel, cave routes and lunch in cave. If any should want to remain over another day, the additional one day fare at the hotel will be added to the $11.35. This will be an excellent opportunity for all who have never been to the Mammoth Cave to go, and a good number of both old and young are expected. Those who intend going will please leave their names at the Kentuckian office in order that they may be provided for.

South Kentucky College.

At a meeting of the faculty of South Kentucky College, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, President S. R. Crumbaugh has chosen to sever his connection with South Kentucky College;

Resolved, That Prof. Crumbaugh in leaving this institution carries with him the good will and esteem of his colleagues and that we highly appreciate his untiring energy, labor and self denial, both in and out of the class room in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the College.

Resolved, That he has our wish for all success and prosperity which his attainments and energies so richly deserve, in whatever field of labor he may choose to enter.

By order of the Faculty of South Kentucky College.
ALBERT J. DANNEY,
Sec'y. of Faculty.

Trouble Ahead.

When the appetite fails, and sleep comes and unrefreshing, there is trouble ahead. The digestive organs, when vigorous and healthy, give us a good appetite, and a good sleep, and a good health. When the digestive organs are weak, the appetite fails, and sleep comes and unrefreshing, and there is trouble ahead.

What is required is a medicine which invigorates the stomach, and promotes assimilation of food by the system, which means the recovery of strength, as well as the physical organism, are strengthened, and the system is invigorated.

Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, is a medicine which invigorates the stomach, and promotes assimilation of food by the system, which means the recovery of strength, as well as the physical organism, are strengthened, and the system is invigorated.
